New-Osleans, Wednesday, May a.

The last of the Cuban Expedition leaves here today, and is accompanied by Gen. Lopez Gousalres, &c. It is impossible to ascertain what the entire strength will be. By some it is thought to be it in the strength of the s chagres; but this is not the fact—it is much nearer home and the Island. They have several steam-losts, but the bulk of the transports are sailing

The way the whole affair has been managed has rendered it impossible for the Government to in-terfere, as any seizure and examination of the vessels would have led to no discovery beyond the senal arrangement and stores for California emivessels would have led to no discovery beyond the smal arrangement and stores for California emigrants.

If any provisions, stores, arms or ammunition, have been sent from hence, they have gone in separate vessels, but, I presume, the great bulk of these have been sent from the North, though, no doubt, some from this city.

The men—I mean the rank and file—engaged in the specific nare of a far superior grade to the taging and bobtail which were collected last season for the same object. The whole of them are equipped at their own expense, and receive no money, being supplied only with a free passage, with the needful provisions and stores for the trip. A large portion of these men have been volunteers in the Mexican war, and will be very hard customers, as, indeed, all of them will be, as they are 'true grit.' As a whole, they probably are fully equal, if not superior, to the volunteers for Mexico in the late war. Their pay is to be very liberal, but only in case of success. In some instances, with officers, this pay has been secured to them by highly responsible names in this country connected with Cuba. In instances that I have heard of $5,000 to a Captain, and $3,000 to a Lieutenant—the usual promise to the rank and file is $1,000 each. But I truly believe that with a large portion of the men, it is the love of excitement and wild adventure which has been a greater inducement than any pecuniary motive. Where all the money needful for the expedition comes from, I am entirely unable to say; but certainly a heavy sun has been expended for provisions and stores, and arms and ammunition cannot be had without eash, nor can steambouts and ships be employed without either the cash or a very sure paymaster in this country, independent of all contingencies as to success.

It is reported to-day that Gen. Quitman has, without either the cash or a very sure paymaster in this country, independent of all contingencies as to success.

It is reported to-day that Gen. Quitman has, resigned as Governor of Miss. for the purpose of joining the expedition as its commander, though it was recently understood that he had declined having anything to do with it in consequence of the remonstrance of his friends. I am at present unable to say positively if such is his determination, but am inclined to think he will go. I consider him entirely ansusted for the enterprise. He has neither the tact, talent, nor the military enterprise and edward ion for such a service, though he himself thinks he has them all in an eminent degree.

The actual attempt will be made between this and the 25th inst.; indeed, I heard to day that they would be on the island by the 14th, as the main body were all collected, and only waiting those who departed to-day, and they go by a steamer. There will be, I fear, a terrible catastrophe, which will create a tremendous excitement in the United States. The parties, however, who go take the whole peril on their own heads, and will have no right in case of failure to call upon the Government for protection, but which they we their friends at home would do, and make a hideous outery if it is not granted. If the landing is effected, I consider that success will principally depend on the reception the invaders meet with from the inhabitants and troops, sate which, it is said, are well disposed to assist in the undertaking. There is some truth, and much more exaggeration, in the roports on this subject. One thing, however, is very certain—hat 6,000 or 8,000 Americans, and such Americans as this expedition is composed of, if they once land, will not be beaten, except after the most determined string he and dreadful shaudter. Indeed, I doubt if any prisoners, except disabled ones, would be taken, as they would well know their fate in case of capture, and would gight to the last.

following additional:

Gen. Lopez and staffleft New Orleans on the 8th inst by steam. So admirably were his operations carried out that the Spanish Consul at that place, although his spies were in every direction, did not have his departure until the 10th!

The annuar of wen placed a sailed is about 4,000

The number of men already sailed is about 4,000. Most of them served in the Mexican war. The thole number positively engaged is 10,000. It will be seen by Gen. Lopez's address, that the belance forming the second expedition, under the sammand of a distinguished American General.

we are not at liberty to give his name) will sail as son as the first body effect a landing in Cuba. We give below General Lopez's address to the Spanish Army, in Cuba, for the purpose of drawing them to his standard. Several thousand copies of it, surmounted by a beautiful engraving of the State Seal of Free Cuba, were printed previous to starting, to be distributed among the Spanish ranks, by spies, as soon as the Patriots landed.

by spies, as soon as the Patriots landed.

Previous to the departure of the first regiment of the Patriots, they were addressed by their Commander-in-Chief in the following manner:

GENERAL LOPEZ'S ADDRESS TO THE PATRIOTS.

Seldiers of the Liberating Army of Caba:

The noble mission on which we have started together, is one which would alone suffice to nerve to heroism the arm of every one holding a place in our ranks, even if you were not already the men of the field of Palo Alto and Cherubusco, or brethren and worthy peers of the men of those immortal victories.

victories. Citizens of the great Republic, you are going to give to Cuba that freedom for which your example has taught her to sigh; to strike from the beautiful limbs of the Queen of the Antilles the chains which have too long degraded her, in subjection to a foreign tyranny which is an outrage upon the sige; to do for your Cuban brethren, whatfallaffayette, a Steulen, a Korcineko and a Palaski are deathless in history for having aided to do for you;

age; to do for your Cuban brethren, what all LaF aytie, a Steuten, a Korciusko and a Palaski are deathless in history for having aided to do for you;
and wentually to add another glorious star to the banner which aircady waves, to the admiration of the whole world, over "The land of the Free, and the home of the Brave."

The people of Cuba would not need that the first gard of honor around the flag of her mascent independence should be mainly composed of their luture fellow-citizens from the United States, but for the peculiar circumstances which have hitherto given to her tyrants a paralyzing clutch upon the throat of her prostrate victim.

Unarmed, and unable to effect the first beginning of organization for insurrection, and menaced by Spain's perpetual threat of converting into worse than San Domingo, the richest and lovellest of Islands beneath the sun—your Cuban brethren have been compelled to wait and long for the hour when a first nucleus for their revolution shall be afforded them by a gallant band of sympathising friends, like that which I esteem it now the higheath concern of my life to lead to this brilliant enterprize. The flag on which you behold the tri-color of Liberty, the triangle of Strength and Order, the star of the fature State, and the stripes of the three departments of Cuba, once unfurled to the wind on her shores, and guarded by a legion of choice spirrits amply powerful to deal Buena Vista fashion with any force which the detested Spanish Government in Cuba will be able to bring against it.

The patriotic people of Cuba will rally in joy and exultation to its support: while you leave be hind you untold theusands, eager to tread in your glorious track, under the lead of one of the most eminent Chiefs of the unparalleled Mexican campaigns, unless indeed we anticipate them by consummating our splendid task before they have time to slow.

Soldiers of the Liberating Expedition of Cuba!

Our first act on arrival shall be the establic.

to below.

Soldiers of the Liberating Expedition of Cuba!

Our first act on arrival shall be the establishment of a Provisional Constitution, founded on American principles, and adapted to the emergencies of the occasion.

This Constitution you will unite with your brethten in Cuba in swearing to support in its principles as well as on the field of battle. You have all been chosen by your officers as men individually worthy of so honorable an undertaking.

I rely implicitly on your presenting to Cuba and the world, a signal example of all the virtues as well as the valor of the American citizen-soldier; and cannot be deceived in my confidence that by your discipline, good order, moderation in victory, and sacred respects for all private rights, you will put to shame every insolent calumny of your enemies. And when the bour arrives for repose on the laurels which await your grasp, you will all, I trost, establish permanent and happy bomes on the bountiful soil of the Island you go to free, and there long erjoy the gratitude which Cuba will never fail generously to bestow on those to whom she will owe the sacred and immeasurable debt of her Lieghtty.

GENERAL LOFEZS ADDRESS TO THE STANISH SOLDIERS IN CUBA, ON THE OCCASION OF HIS ARRIVAL.

Soldiers of the Spanish Army:

Called by the inhabitants of this Island to place myself at the head of a great popular movement, which has for its only object, Political Liberty and Independence, and upheld in this just cause by the power of a great and generous people, I now come to these plazas at the head of war-worn troops, determined to consummate so glorious an undertaking.

Soldiers! I know that you endure both the des-determined to consummate so glorious an under-taking.

Soldiers! I know that you endure both the des-potism and the harshness of your chiefs: I know, that, torn from your firesides, and from the arms of your fathers, your brothers, and all most dear, by the barbarous law of conscription, you have been confined in this country, where in place of mild treatment which would at least in a measure soften your misery, you are treated like beasts, and in the midst of the most profound peace you are subject-ed to all the fatigues and vigors of war.

Former companions in arms! you know me, and I also know you; I have seen you in a hun-dred battles.

I know that you are brave, and that you deserve to recover the dignity of men; and to you I open the ranks of my army, and invite you to occupy within them a place among the champions of

Thus will you be able to have rest and a good reward after the stuggle, which will be short, is over; or, with the free, return to your firesides, where the voice of family affection calls you.

Boldiers! Between liberty and the continuance of your ignominous servitude, Choose!

But think well with your swords drawn, and sheath them not until you have left assured the liberty of the whole country! Thus will you fill with esteem your former General, the Commander in Chief of the Liberating Army of Caba.

NACISIO LOPEZ.

IRVING INSTITUTE.—LYON'S Classical and Commercial Boarding-School for Young Gentlemen-Irving Institute. Tarrytown, New-Yors. William P. LYON, A. M. Principal and Proprietor.

This Institution was founded by the present proprietor, and has been in successful operation under his management for twelve years past. None but boarders are received. The number of pupils has usually ranged between 40 and 50, of ages varying from 3 to 17. These are divided into four or more classes, under experienced and efficient unters, and the constant supervision of the Principal; and are constantly and thoroughly instructed in every branch of a classical and commercial education. The Principal devotes himself to the well-being of his pupils, and is alone responsible to his patrons.

Tarrytown is distant but 25 miles from New-York, and is visited several times a day by steamboats and by cars of the Hudson River Railroad.

To promote case, grace and erectness of carriage, and in general a healthful development of the physical system, the Principal has introduced a course of elementary military instruction in accordance with the U. S. Inianary tactica, and in that superior tactician. Col. W. Tompkins, of N. Y.

The moral welfare of youth being always a consideration of the first impériance, it is an object of soficiated with the Principal to bring his pupits to conduct themselves under the saintary influence of moral and religious principles, but without interiering at all with the tenets of particular denominations.

The Principal is at liberty to refer to distinguished gendemen who have patronized his School, but deems it unnecessary to embarrass himself is the selection of names, as the institution is well known in New-York and elemenses. The Principal is alternation apply to the Principal, at the Institute.

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUD,

As scores of individuals are getting up all kinds of worthless counterfeit stuff, and selling it as fire-proof paint. I have the statements of more than twenty men of the highest standing in Ohio in the victaity of the mine, who have seen, and some used, this counterfeit stuff, who gave me a statement saying that there had been such a complete failare in all the kinds of stuff got up and sold here, called fire-proof paint, except Blake's, that his only is considered worth using. Every person, therefore, to be safe, should see that my name is on every package, for if they get the powder that will make the genuine fire-proof paint like mins, they make themselves hable to a prosecution for an infringement of my patent; and if they get a counterfeit, of course lose their money. The genuine article of different colors, both ground in oil and in dry powder, kept constantly on hand at the general depot, 34 Pearlet.

OH10 STATE LOAN OF $2.680,000.—The Commissioners of the Ohio Canal Fund, by virue of an act of the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, passed March 11, 1850, hereby give notice that sealed proposals will be received until Wednesday, the 18th of June next, at noon, at the office of the Ohio Life insurance and Trust Company, New-York, for a loan of Two Millions 81x Hundred Thousand Dollars for which transferable certificates of Ohio State Stock will be insured as follows:

One Million 81x Hundred Thousand Dollars to bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually in the City of New-York, and the principal reimbursed at the pleasure of the State after the year 1875.

One Million of Dollars to bear interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, payable as above, and the principal reimbursements at the pleasure of the State after 1885.

The certificates of stock will bear interest from the 1st day of July, 1850.

The preniums offered for said loan must be paid in cash, or in Ohio six per cent stocks of 1850, at par, on the day of opening the proposals, by depositing the same with the Ohio Life Insurance and Trust Company, New-York, to the credit of the Ohio Canal Fund Commissioners: The balance or principal to be paid as above, either in cash of Ohio six per cent. stock of 1850 at par, on the list day of July next, when the certificates of stock will be delivered. The proceeds of the above loan are required for the redemption of the five near an action of the principal of the five per cent stock, and the premium and five per cent. of the principal of the five per cent stock, the balance may remain on Interest at two per cents stock, the balance may remain on Interest at two per cents stock, when the stocks being withheld as collateral security for such payment.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The public are hereby notified that the preparadon extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manager to the property of the public and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from Dr. S. P. Townsend; and I couly that it is composed of ingredients PURELY VRGETA BLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY; and also that the ingredients are judiciously compounded, so as to obtain from their greatest medicinal effect.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D. Chemist

Dr. Chilton's name is surety that the elements of this Entract are combined in the most correct and eclestific manner, and that it is adapted to the wants of the invalid, with the highest professional ability.

This we hope will be sufficient GUARANTER to the pable, and to those purchasing Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla. Such may have no fear of gentley one of the spurious and banetul mixtures which ill the channels of trade, and are concocted without any most LEDGE either of the nature of REMEDIAL AGENTS, or the WANTS OF THE HUMAN SYSTEM when LABGERTS, or the WANTS OF THE HUMAN SYSTEM when LABGERTS, or the MISSASE. Hectic Fever, Night Sweats, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Chest and Asthma; and he warrants it to arrest the formation of tubercles in the lungs, and to head those already formed, so that persons in Consumption may take it with the most peature confidence of a care; for its great seat of action is the Lovas, which it pensation and directions, purifying them of everything obnoxious in its progress, and which if applied according to directions, it cannot fall to leave in a perfactly healthy condition.

Dr. Hastings's Compound Syrap of Naptha is highly recommended by the medical profession. That eminent physiciae, Dr. Mott, of New York, says, "hat as a pulmonic remedy it cannot be too highly praised." Dr. Arrand, of the Marine Hospital, Savannah, Dr. Ware of Liverpool, England, Dr. Williamson of Manchester, England, Dr. Boyd of Laucaster, Dr. Hamilton of Bath, and those eminent English publications, the London Laucet, the Medical Journal, and Erachametric Retrespect all accord to it the most convincing certificates of its virtues. In this country it has been used with distinguished success.
